The following extract from the report on the work of Indian Section of the British Consulate at Bagdad for the year 1936, is published for general information :—

Section VIII—(b) Visas for Iran.

Many Indian Pilgrims obtained transit visas from the Iranian Consul at Bagdad without difficulty. These visas are not granted for any specific period, but on arrival at Meshed the holders are informed by the Iranian police that they should not prolong their stay beyond a fortnight in Iran.

Ordinary visas valid for one month are also issued by the Iranian Consul and this period can be extended for a further two months if the pilgrims so request when registering their pilgrim passes at Meshed.

Unless pilgrims are confident of being able to complete their pilgrimage expeditiously, it is preferable that they should obtain full visas.
